

The best spring cleaning products, according to the pros

Want to know what the cleaning experts reach for when they clean? We did the dirty work so you don't have to.

By Tiffany Ayers / Rep. 04.2020 / 2:28 PM ET

— If you're ready to spruce up your home for spring, these are products the experts recommend to get the job done right. Jill Green / iStock / Getty Images

Now that spring has sprung, it's time to cut the crud and give your home a good scrub-down. From dusty corners to mildew-y bathroom tiles to grimy kitchen sinks, we tapped the top cleaning experts on the best products they swear by. Glove up and prepare to give your digs an immaculate makeover.

11. MULTI-PURPOSE CLEANER

Our pick: Bar Keepers Friend Cleanser

If your stainless steel pots, glass, or porcelain could use some TLC, you've got a keeper in this product. McGee says Bar Keepers Friend is her favorite cleanser because it can remove scuffs, rust and food stains. "It will not scratch surfaces, as long as you apply it with a non-scratch sponge or microfiber cloth," she says. A fairy dusting of this powdered multi-purpose cleaner goes a long way. "It can be used successfully to remove scuffs, rust, and food stains, whether dried on or burned on. It can also bring a scum-covered shower door to a shine. No other cleanser works as well for all of these tasks," McGee adds. ($3.49; amazon.com)